CHAPTER 108

AN ACT to amend 29.535 of the statutes, relating to introducing fish and game.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

29.535 of the statutes is amended as follows:

29.535 INTRODUCING FISH AND GAME. (1) It * * * is unlawful for any person * * * to bring into the state * * * for the purpose of planting or introducing, or to plant or introduce into any of the inland or outlying waters of the state, any fish or the spawn thereof * * *, or to bring into the state * * *, for the purpose of * * * stocking or introducing, or to * * * stock or introduce in the state any wild bird or animal of any kind * * *, unless they shall first apply in writing to the state conservation commission for a permit therefor. Such permit shall be granted only after the state conservation commission or its duly authorized agents have made such investigation and inspection of the fish, birds or animals as they may deem necessary and approve such planting, * * * stocking or introduction.

(2) Nothing in the provisions of this section shall prohibit the state conservation commission, the state conservation department, or its duly authorized agents from bringing into the state * * *, for the purpose of planting, introducing or * * * stocking, or to plant, introduce or * * * stock in this state, any fish, bird or animal.

Approved May 17, 1957.
